

THE VICE PRESIDENT
WASHINGTON

September 10, 1975

Dear Bill:

You were most thoughtful to send me a copy of the Intelligence Checklist for Congress. I would certainly like to receive future editions.

At this early date in the experiment, I don't have any constructive comments to offer. I did note that the classification does not seem to stand out and you might want to consider marking it boldly at the top and bottom of each individual page.

With best regards,

Sincerely,

Please note the attached. I presume that the Director is instructing you to classify each page of the Checklist "boldly at the top and bottom".

Are there any problems?
